Forward Looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements and, in some cases, can be identified by the use of the words “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “plan,” “project,” “result,” “seek,” “should,” “will” and similar expressions. These statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions and are not guarantees of future performance, which may be affected by known and unknown risks, trends, uncertainties, and factors that are beyond our control. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated, or projected.

We caution investors that forward-looking statements are based on management’s beliefs and on assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. Factors that may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: (i) our ability to identify and acquire industrial properties on terms favorable to us; (ii) general volatility of the capital markets; (iii) adverse economic or real estate conditions or developments in the industrial real estate sector and/or in the markets in which we acquire properties; (iv) our dependence on key personnel and our reliance on third parties to property manage the majority of our industrial properties; (v) our dependence upon tenants; (vi) our inability to comply with the laws, rules and regulations applicable to companies, and in particular, public companies; (vii) our ability to manage our growth effectively; (viii) tenant bankruptcies and defaults on or non-renewal of leases by tenants; (ix) decreased rental rates or increased vacancy rates; (x) increased interest rates and operating costs; (xi) declining real estate valuations and impairment charges; (xii) our expected leverage, our failure to obtain necessary outside financing, and future debt service obligations; (xiii) our ability to make distributions to our stockholders; (xiv) our failure to successfully hedge against interest rate increases; (xv) our failure to successfully operate acquired properties; (xvi) our failure to qualify or maintain our status as a real estate investment trust (“REIT”), and possible adverse changes to tax laws; (xvii) uninsured or underinsured losses relating to our properties; (xviii) environmental uncertainties and risks related to natural disasters; (xix) financial market fluctuations; and (xx) changes in real estate and zoning laws and increases in real property tax rates. Other factors that could materially affect results can be found in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012, including those set forth under the sections titled “Risk Factors” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” and in our other public filings.

We expressly disclaim any responsibility to update our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise, except as required by law. Accordingly, investors should use caution in relying on past forward-looking statements, which are based on results and trends at the time they are made, to anticipate future results or trends.

Investment Strategy

Unique and Highly Selective Market Approach

- Acquire, own and operate industrial real estate exclusively in 6 major coastal U.S. markets
 - Mix of core and value-add investments
 - No ground up development
 - No complex joint ventures
- Superior market fundamentals, including lower availability and higher rent growth
 - Strong demand generators (high population densities, near high volume distribution points)
 - Physical and regulatory constraints to new supply

Focus on Functional Assets in Infill Locations

- Broad product opportunity set⁽¹⁾
 - Warehouse / distribution (87.9%)
 - Flex (including light industrial and R&D) (9.9%)
 - Trans-shipment (2.2%)
- Functional and flexible assets
 - Generally suitable for multiple tenants
 - In proximity to transportation infrastructure
 - Caters to sub-market tenant demands
- Multiple value creation opportunities
 - Emphasis on discount to replacement cost to provide for margin of safety
 - Opportunity for higher and better use over time

Selected Examples of Value Creation

- In addition to the acquisition and operation of core properties, Terreno has successfully stabilized 13 of 22 value-added investments to date. Since its IPO, approximately 52% of Terreno's acquisitions have been value-add investments

Strategy	Examples
Repositioning of Vacant Properties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 60th Avenue: A vacant 195,000 square foot former manufacturing facility in Miami was acquired during foreclosure proceedings. Terreno renovated the property adding 20 dock-high loading positions, reconfigured the entrance, offices and truck court and executed a long term lease with a logistics company. 78th Avenue: A vacant 75,000 square foot property in Miami's Airport West submarket was acquired which previously had not been leased for over 5 years, as it required substantial renovation. Terreno renovated the property including reconfiguring the office and upgrading the overall condition of the exterior, warehouse and truck court. In May 2013, Terreno executed a long term lease with a packaging and printing company.
Vacant and Near Term Lease Expirations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 630 Glasgow: The Inglewood, CA property was purchased vacant and was subsequently 100% leased to an air freight/logistics tenant within one week of transaction close 101st Road. Terreno acquired a newly constructed, vacant building and surface storage lot leased to FedEx in Medley, FL. A tenant was identified by Terreno during due diligence and the property was 100% leased within a week of transaction close.
Value Realized	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rialto: The San Bernardino trans-shipment property was acquired for approximately $12.1 million in September 2010. After the tenant restructured its debt and renegotiated its labor contracts, Terreno realized value by selling the property for approximately $17.0 million in November 2012 and recycled the capital into new acquisitions

Market Leading Corporate Structure

Management Alignment

- CEO and President's long-term incentive compensation fully aligned with stockholders; tied solely to three-year total stockholder return exceeding the MSCI U.S. REIT Index and FTSE NAREIT Equity Industrial Index
 - No annual cash bonus plan for CEO and President
 - Long-term incentive compensation paid solely in stock to CEO and President
- No stock options, SARs, dividend equivalent units or UPREIT units
- Significant management investment in common shares

Corporate Governance

- Majority independent directors with diverse expertise serving annual terms
- Adopted a majority voting standard in non-contested director elections
- Opted out of two Maryland anti-takeover provisions (no opt in without stockholder approval)
- Ownership limits designed to protect REIT status and not for the purpose of serving as an anti-takeover device
- No stockholder rights plan intended unless approved in advance by stockholders or if adopted, subject to termination if not ratified by stockholders within 12 months

Key Takeaways

- Focused strategy
 - Six major coastal US markets exclusively
 - Flexible and functional assets in infill locations
- Acquisition opportunities across our target markets at discounts to replacement cost
 - Opportunity for accelerated investment pace
 - Ability to convert value-add investments into stabilized assets and realize value
- Strong balance sheet and acquisition capacity
- Aligned management team and market leading corporate governance
 - CEO and President's incentive compensation based solely on total shareholder return outperformance
 - Executive management invested approximately $10 million in common shares through the company's three public offerings and open market purchases
